

ST EDWARD'S
OXFORD

14+ ENTRANCE EXAM

LATIN

2013

1 hour

Name: _____

The varied life of Alcibiades, before and after his exile from Athens.

1. Study the following passage (do NOT write a translation), and answer the questions below in English. Complete sentences are not required.

Alcibiades, vir Atheniensis, optimus dux militum erat, et de omnibus rebus semper consilium suum civibus dabat. alii vitam eius bonam fuisse dicebant, alii malam. sed tres gravissimi scriptores eum maxime laudaverunt; inter quos Thucydides erat, qui eodem tempore vivebat.

ille haec scribit: "Alcibiades, Athenis natus, urbe omnium pulcherrima, etiam ibi 5 plus dignitatis habebat quam omnes alii cives. Alcibiades cum multis militibus ad insulam Siciliam missus est. sed cum abiisset, inimici eum de crimine aliquo accusabant...

Alcibiades, -is (m.) = Alcibiades

Atheniensis -e = Athenian

consilium, i (n.) = advice

gravissimi = very important

Thucydides, -idis (m.) = Thucydides,
(a Greek historian)

Athenae, -arum (f.pl.) = Athens

dignitas, -tatis (f.) = status, importance inimicus, -i (c.) = personal enemy

crimen, -inis (n.) = (here) crime

aliqui, a, od = some

- [15]
- (a) (i) What does the writer say about Alcibiades as a general in line 1? [1]
(ii) What else does he say in the first sentence about what Alcibiades used to do? [2]
 - (b) What different views were expressed about his life in lines 2-3? [2]
 - (c) What information does the writer give in line 3 which would help his readers take a more favourable view of Alcibiades? [2]
 - (d) (i) What detail does he add about the historian Thucydides? [1]
(ii) Briefly explain why this detail could be important in finding out the truth about Alcibiades' life. [1]
 - (e) How is the city of Athens described in line 5? [2]
 - (f) What made Alcibiades a well-known person in Athens (lines 5 – 6)? [2]
 - (g) What happened in Athens while Alcibiades was away, campaigning in Sicily (lines 7 – 8)? [2]

2(a) Translate on alternate lines the next section of the story which follows straight on.

[25]

his rebus cognitis, Alcibiades primo se defendere volebat. domum igitur navigabat; in nave etiam custodes erant ut eum Athenas ducerent. 10

Alcibiades, quod tandem periculum suum bene intellexit, e custodibus effugit et ad aliam Graeciae urbem pervenit; in qua urbe, audivit se absentem condemnatum esse. ex illa urbe expulsus, Thebas venit; cives eius urbis viribus corporis magis quam ingenio noti erant; Alcibiades eos imitabatur ita ut nemo eum aequare in labore posset. et ubi apud Thracas, homines vinolentos, habitabat, omnes 15 mirabantur quantum vini biberet.

cognosco, ere = discover

Thebae, Thebarum (f.pl.) = Thebes (a Greek city)

ingenium, i (n.) = intelligence

imitor, imitari = imitate, copy

aequo, aequare (here) = equal, match

Thracia, ae (f.) = Thrace (a Greek region)

intellego, ere = understand vires, ium (f.pl.) = strength

notus, a, um = well known ita ut = in such a way that

Thrax, Thracis (m.) = a Thracian

vinolentus –a –um = wine-drinking

2(b) Using this second section as a guide, try to put the following phrase into Latin:

[5]

When these things had been heard, the exiled citizens wanted to defend their well-known city.

3. Do NOT translate, but answer the questions that follow this final section of the story.

[25]

ibi penitus in Thraciam se abdidit. sed Thraces postquam eum cum magna pecunia venisse senserunt, insidias fecerunt. ille cernens nullum locum sibi tutum in Graecia, in Persiam transiit, ubi cum magna comitate acciperetur. qua fortuna Alcibiades non erat contentus neque Athenas victas Lacedaemoniis servire poterat 20 pati. Lacedaemonii igitur Persis persuadebant ut milites mitterent qui Alcibiadem interficerent. illi cum ferro aggredi non auderent, noctu ligna tulerunt circa casam in qua dormiebat, eamque incenderunt. ille autem sonitu flammae excitatus est domo effugit. quem cum Persae incendium effugisse vidissent, telis eminus emissis interfecerunt caputque eius ad regem suorum rettulerunt. 25

Nepos, Alcibiades, 4-5, 9-11 (adapted) penitus = deep within insidias facio, ere = lay a trap Persia, -ae (f.) = Persia servio, ire = be a slave aggredior, i = attack lignum, i (n.) = wood eminus = from afar

se abdo, ere = hide oneself cerno, ere = realise comitas, atis (f.) = warmth, friendliness Lacedaemonii, orum (m.) = Spartans Persae, arum (m) = Persians sonitus, us (m.) = sound
caput, itis (n.) = head

- (a) From this passage give one example of:
(i) an imperfect subjunctive verb
(ii) a deponent infinitive
(iii) a present participle [3]
- (b) In what case are the nouns? (i) Graecia (line 19)
(ii) Persis (line 21)
(iii) caput (line 25) [3]
- (c) Account for the Ablative case of noctu. (line 22) [1]
- (d) Write out and translate a complete example of:
(i) an Indirect/Reported Statement
(ii) an Indirect/Reported Command
(iii) an ablative absolute [6]
- (e) Why did Alcibiades decide nowhere was safe for him in Greece? (lines 17-18) [2]
- (f) What method did the Persians use to try to kill Alcibiades? (lines 22-23) [3]
- (g) What stopped this method from working? (lines 23-24) [2]
- (h) How was he killed finally and what proof of his death was conveyed to the Persian king? (lines 24-25) [1+1]
- (i) After reading this story, in your opinion, to whom was Alcibiades most loyal? Give a reason for your answer. [3]

