CREATIVE WRITING

(40 minutes)

Remember to write your candidate number on every sheet of answer paper used.

Do not turn over until told to do so.

1. A traveller has a time machine. They can travel to any time and place but they can take at most three journeys. Write an account of the traveller's voyages and difficulties.

You can choose to write this from the perspective of the traveller, the time machine, or a third-person narrator.

[25]

Up to five of the 25 marks available will be awarded for spelling, punctuation, quality of grammar, originality, elegance, and flair of expression.
